Fursey Pulpit Fall and Dedication
Saturday 6th October 2012

The Bishop of Thetford, the Rt Revd Alan Winton, and
Philippa Sims at the Dedication

The design of the Fall is based on our Fursey Pilgrims logo. This is an equal-armed cross set against the background of a scallop shell, the symbol of Pilgrimage. Each arm is formed using the Triquetra symbol representing the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. The Fursey Fall was the work of Fursey Pilgrim Philippa Sims. Of her work she said:

'The Fursey Fall was hand embroidered on Irish linen. The pilgrims' shell is of sateen and forms a background to the everlasting paths to and from God, which were sewn in chain stitch using DMC threads of naturalistic colours, similar to those used in Celtic writings. The paths lead to a gold boss at the centre of the Cross which was sewn in couched-down gold thread. The Fursey name was sewn in satin stitch using DMC thread'.
